

October 12, 2011: The Andover Police Department hosted a regional Railway Collision Investigation Class in conjunction with Pan Am Railways, the MBTA, and the Federal Railway Administration. Public Safety Personnel from 33 different agencies attended a morning of classroom instruction and an afternoon of “hands-on” with railroad equipment.